7. Generally exert every effort to make sure that ABC Players pursues sound financial policies.
8. Carry out necessary functions of the President, if both the President and the Vice-President are absent or disabled.

Article II: All Board Members

Those responsibilities common to all members of the Board of Directors are as follows:

- A. Attendance at Board meetings is mandatory.
- B. Any Board member who must miss a Board meeting must, in advance of the meeting, contact the President or the Vice President. If that member is responsible for a committee report or Officer's report, said report should be delivered to another Board member for presentation at the meeting.
- C. Absence from three (3) Board meetings in any one (1) year term of office constitutes the resignation of that Board member.

Article III: Board of Directors

The Board is empowered to transact any business necessary to the operation of APT within the following limitations:

- A. Expenditures shall be kept within authorized budget limitations except for expenditures under $250.00 for the express purpose of maintaining essential ABC Players operations or emergency action required to protect ABC Players property.
- B. Transactions shall be consistent with the wishes of the membership as evidenced by the bylaws or by approval motions or resolutions.
- C. Contracts involving substantial commitment of money, manpower, or other APT resources shall not exceed the tenure of the Board of Directors, unless approved by the voting membership.

Section 5: ELECTIONS

Article I: Election Procedure

- A. Elections shall be held during the April general business meeting each year for all

Officers of the Board of Directors.

- B. The Vice President shall chair the Nominating Committee, numbering no less than two (2) and no more than four (4) people. The slate shall be presented at the April general meeting recommending at least one (1) person for each office. The consent of all nominees should be obtained in advance of the nominations. All voting members of ABC Players will be notified of elections by mail (e-mail where possible) at least one (1) week in advance. Notification shall include listing of the Nominating Committee "slate."
- C. Voting will be by secret ballot for any contested office and will be for one (1) office at a time in the following order:
 - 1. President
 - 2. Vice President
 - 3. Secretary
 - 4. Treasurer

The President shall call for nominations from the floor prior to each vote. A nomination can be made by any voting member. Only one (1) nomination may be made by any one member for a given office. The permission of the nominee must be secured in advance of the placing of the name into nomination.

Section 6: MEETINGS

Article I: Notification

- A. A minimum of three (3) general business meetings will be held during the tenure of each Board of Directors.
- B. All voting members will be notified of meetings by mail. The notice must be postmarked one (1) week prior to the meeting date and must state major known items of business to be transacted.
- C. Special business meetings can be called by the President or designate at any time, making every reasonable effort to inform all members. Transactions of special meetings must be reviewed at the next general business meeting.

Article II: Procedure

- A. Unless otherwise specified, Robert's Rules of Order will be followed.
- B. A quorum will consist of qualified voting members present.
- C. Proxy votes will not be accepted.

Section 7: PLAY SELECTION AND SCHEDULING

Article I: Regular ABC Players Plays

- A. The Board of Directors shall determine how many main stage productions are to be presented in the coming season prior to the Play Selection meeting.
- B. Play Presentations by a Play Reading Committee will be held in the spring, sufficiently early that the next season's selections can be announced at least by the time of the present season's final production. Any Guild member wishing to vote on the season must attend the entire play presentation event in order to be eligible to vote. The presenter must cover the following items:
 - 1. Name and Author of play
 - 2. Cast needs--broken down into male and female and ages
 - 3. Brief summary of plot

- C. After all presentations are made, the voting membership will vote for the season in order of preference. A majority vote will decide the first show selected and then the second show will be selected by majority vote until the season is set. In the case of a tie vote, the President will cast the deciding vote.
- D. When possible, play selection will be done immediately following play presentations. In a case where time does not allow this, a special meeting will be held to do play selection for the season.
- E. In a case where a play must be withdrawn from the season, (e.g., play suddenly withdrawn from availability, director is incapacitated or moves away suddenly), the Board will make a determination about replacing the director or replacing the play. In the latter case, the play receiving the most votes at Play Presentations, but not making the season, will be considered to replace the one withdrawn. The membership will be notified of this eventuality immediately.

Article II: Subsidiary Groups

Subsidiary groups such as Junior Players, Youth Summer Theatre, Experimental Theatre, New Playwrights Series, Workshop Productions, Reader's Theatre, or Family Service Plays may select their plays as they see fit. They should, however, be reported to the Board for approval before publicity releases are sent out or a firm commitment is made.

SECTION 8: FINANCIAL PROCEDURES

Article I: Expenditures from the Treasury

All expenditures from ABC Players treasury shall be by check or bank card. Checks will be signed by an Officer of ABC Players. The Treasurer shall maintain on file at the bank signatures of persons who may validate a check. Any member may sign when using the bank card.

Article II: Authorization for Expenditure

- A. Reimbursement may be made to any Officer or responsible party for authorized expenditures, upon the presentation of a satisfactory receipt or statement and purchase record designating purpose.
- B. Advances may be made for authorized expenditures. It will be the responsibility of the Treasurer to keep appropriate records of such advances until satisfactory statements or receipts are presented and any unexpected cash balance has been returned.
- C. An expenditure of funds not exceeding $250.00, not covered in the Annual Budget, may be made if it has been authorized by a special vote of the ABC Players Board of Directors and is for the express purpose of maintaining essential ABC Players operations.

Article III: Responsibility for ABC Players Funds

The members of the Board of ABC Players shall be individually and collectively responsible for expending ABC Players funds in an authorized manner.

Although individual items within the annual ABC Players budget may be exceeded, the Board of ABC Players shall be accountable for any total expenditure in excess of authorization until the overrun is approved by the ABC Players membership, except:

- A. Increased expenditures caused by program expansion. These must be offset by increased revenue.
- B. Additional expenditures offset by specific donations for that purpose.

Article IV: Audit of Funds

The Board of Directors or designate, other than the Treasurer, will audit the financial records at the close of the financial season (normally July 1).

SECTION 9: AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

Article I: Notification of Proposed Amendment

- A. Proposed amendments will be submitted in writing to the President.
- B. ABC Players members will be acquainted with amendment proposals by one of the following means, at the option of the President:
 - 1. Reading aloud, in its entirety, at a business meeting.
 - 2. Mailing copy with meeting notice.
 - 3. Distributing a copy at a business meeting and allowing sufficient time to read before a vote is taken.
- C. The fact that an amendment to the Bylaws will be considered is to be stated in the mail notification of the meeting. It is the responsibility of the person proposing the amendment to notify the President of his attentions in time for such a statement to be included.
- D. The proposal may be accepted by majority vote of the attending members at any meeting, either as submitted or as amended. It does not take effect, however, until it is ratified.

Article II: Ratification

- A. Amendment proposals must be ratified at a business meeting within three (3) months of proposal. Amendments not ratified within this period must be resubmitted.
- B. Attending members are to be acquainted with any aspects they desire, but unless requested by a member, the proposal need not be presented again in its entirety. The proposal is ratified by a majority vote of the members attending.
- C. A proposal that is amended during the second reading must be resubmitted for ratification at a subsequent meeting, even though it may have been accepted by the voting membership prior to amending.

Amended 6/1994; 2/2005
